

Nahant Sept. 11th 1863

My dear Miss Weston

If you have still the intention of trying the Black-Hamburg Grapes without the aid of glass I invite you & Mr. Trow joins me in the request, that you would repeat your visit to Nahant somewhere about the 20th inst. & spend the rest of the month with us in part for the purpose of seeing the progress of the grapes in question.

There are some clusters on several of the Vines: none only in their third year from the slip, which are about as forward as the Isabelle & in advance of the Diana. Considering the discouraging season we have had, the present prospect is that these grapes will ripen & fulfill

The first of these is the fact that the Government has been unable to secure the necessary funds to carry out its policy of non-interference. This is due to the fact that the Government has been unable to secure the necessary funds to carry out its policy of noninterference. This is due to the fact that the Government has been unable to secure the necessary funds to carry out its policy of non-interference.

expectations & that with very little pains we may substitute in our gardens the fine grape in question, for the Isabella & most of the other grapes now cultivated; which have none so near & sweet in them.

Offering my best regards to your sisters, who have favored us with a visit, I take pleasure in saying

I am very truly,

Frederic Tudor

Miss Weston
Weymouth
Landing.

Direct to me at Boston in preference to Robert

...with you all in that to which I refer
...in the future I am sure
...the first of the year
...the whole of the year
...the whole of the year
...the whole of the year

...the first of the year
...the first of the year
...the first of the year
...the first of the year

...the first of the year

...the first of the year

...the first of the year